

Neighborhood News.

Written by our assistant editors.

DEWEY.

Mrs. MAY MATTHEWS.

Jack and Jill were on the hill
For a violet or a daisy.
The ground hog intercepted them
And said "you must be crazy!"

Benton Taylor is moving this week to Mr. Pugh's farm.

Mr. Trimble stayed at Arlo Estey's Wednesday night. The weather was so bad he couldn't get home. Friday he dismissed school and took the teachers examination.

Bert Donald and wife have moved into the house vacated by Clarence Simmons.

The Ladies Aid will have a rag-tackling at the home of Mrs. Brock Thursday afternoon.

J. R. Strong, the Presiding Elder, will preach at Salem Saturday, March 13, at 11 o'clock and Saturday evening and Sunday morning, and Bro. Lewis will preach Sunday evening.

The weather interfered with the attendance at Sabbath School, only 52 were present.

There was a surprise party on George Carter Monday night. He was 19 years old. The girls brought pies and the boys candy and fruit and they all had a grand time.

Still quite a number sick with colds. The Dewey people extend sympathy to Mr. J. E. Carter's family. They formerly lived where Mr. Wood lives, and two of the boys attended the Dewey school.

Harvey Goff and wife have received an announcement card of the marriage of Orville Goff to Miss Eva McNabb February 20, at Prague, Okla. Orville Goff lived here several years.

John Goff returns this week to Cortez, Colo.

Two new members to the Salem band.

Mr. Wood and his wife, who have been visiting Mrs. McReynolds, a sister, left Monday morning for their home in New Mexico.

Otto Goddard and family are visiting his mother this week.

Mrs. Estey and Harold went to Carthage Saturday. The roads are dreadful. Two days the mail carrier could not cross Dry Fork.

The 4-months-old daughter of Jay Leper and wife died Monday and was buried in Joplin Wednesday. Mr. Leper and family live half a mile west of Dewey.

UNION VALLEY.

Miss HELEN SCOTT.

Frank Miller and wife have moved to the E. D. Boyd farm lately vacated by Mr. Foger. We welcome them in our community.

Mrs. J. E. Carter went to Carthage Friday, where she will make an extended visit with her son Charley.

Miss Leota McClintock has been taking treatment from an oculist and her eyes are slowly improving.

Mrs. Mary Hendrix of Jasper, visited Saturday night with Mrs. George Patterson.

Lute Vincent and wife had as guests Sunday, George Nixon and family and Jim Conroy and wife.

Earl Jobe and wife have moved to the Will Ward farm, recently purchased by the Carter brothers.

Allan Buerge and wife spent Sunday with Frank Buerge and family.

Loyd Winder and wife spent Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. Hyder of Jasper.

Mrs. George Patterson and family and Mrs. Mary Hendrix spent Sunday with C. D. Stith and family.

Max Carter returned to Columbia Sunday night, where he is attending the University.

W. S. Pennington and family took dinner with Allan Buerge and wife one day last week.

Mrs. Jay Kerney is sick this week. Ernest and Scambler Billington spent Sunday with Earl Keith.

Orin Harvey of Joplin spent Sunday with his parents, Amos Harvey and wife.

Allan Buerge and wife visited at Mrs. Hendrix's one evening last week. Frank Buerge and family visited at J. I. Buerge's last Monday.

Ernest and Scambler Billington visited Arlie Hummel Friday.

Miss Helen Scott spent Saturday night and Sunday with E. W. Scott and family of Jasper.

Claud Martin, who has had his foot hurt for some time, seems to be improving, although he is still walking on crutches.

There was no school at Union Valley last Friday as the teacher, Miss Merla

Crow, attended the teachers' examination at Carthage. Helen Scott and Fred Phillips also were among those taking the examinations.

LEBANON.

Miss ALTHEA ARMSTRONG.

Mrs. J. H. Selsor and daughter, Mrs. J. C. Rex, returned from a short visit in Kansas Friday. They spent Friday night with Mrs. F. W. Rumble of Jasper and Mrs. Rex will visit at the homes of C. F. and G. W. Rex this week before returning to her home in New Mexico. She will not be accompanied by her mother at this time, but Mrs. Selsor will visit in the south later in the season.

G. P. Norris and wife left Jasper Saturday evening for Ashland, Nebr., where they will make their home the coming year. The good wishes of their friends for a prosperous year follow them.

Joe Brenneman of Kansas visited last week with his brother George and family, after having attended the funeral of his father whose death occurred recently at his home in Virginia.

Los Major and family and Mrs. Brenneman recently visited at the home of George Brenneman while awaiting to get possession of their future home in Kansas.

Frank Thacker and family called at the J. R. Carns home Sunday afternoon.

John R. Carns is yet quite ill at his home two miles from Lebanon Church and confined to his room and most of the time to his bed.

H. J. Stansberry and family made a neighborly call at the George Waltz home Sunday afternoon.

A. P. Selsor of Oklahoma is visiting home folks this week.

Mrs. H. J. Stansberry and little sons Lloyd and Floyd spent Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Stansberry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Weston of Jasper.

Miss Eva Still spent Saturday night and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Lige Primmer.

Mrs. Edna Merrithew returned from a 10 days visit with friends in Carthage last Wednesday and will spend this week at the home of her parents, Henry Graham and wife, before returning to Kansas City.

Mrs. Martha Rex reports in a letter to her daughter-in-law, that she is having a fine visit with her three daughters in Kansas City.

Claude Waddel and wife spent Monday at the Harve Lee home.

Little Naomi Stansberry is yet quite sick.

Wm. Redmond and family are moving to the Selsor farm this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Southwick and daughter Bernice spent Sunday at the Henry Graham home.

H. A. Ringer spent last week in Kansas City.

Francis Lee, who has been quite sick, is improving very fast and will soon be able to chase butterflies when the sun shines.

Orville Andrews visited with Claude Smith, south of Jasper, Saturday night and Sunday.

Earl Ray and Hugh Phillips spent Sunday evening at the C. S. Andrews home.

Hugh Phillips helped C. S. and Orville Andrews butcher three fat hogs Monday. This is good sausage meat weather; lets go down and take dinner. [Fine! But my boat sprung a leak and the office biplane is out of commission.—Editor.]

CARYTOWN.

Mrs. EDITH TURNER.

The directors of Carytown held a meeting at the school house last Tuesday evening.

The doctor was at R. F. Elliott's again last Thursday.

People will all be glad to see this bad weather disappear, and the mud dry up so they can have the pleasure of taking care of little biddies and making garden.

John Palmer is a new scholar at Carytown.

Kenney Miller was a visitor at Carytown school Saturday.

School was held at Carytown Saturday to make up some lost time.

Augusta Kyte spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Howard Gaddis was out of school Saturday on the account of having to go to Carthage to get his glasses.

THE NEWS Takes pleasure in introducing Mrs. Edith Turner to the correspondents and readers of this department. Mrs. Turner will write from Carytown, the place being vacated by Mrs. Clyde Wagner, who has moved to a place west of Jasper. We hope the people in the Carytown neighborhood will co-operate with Mrs. Turner in making her items interesting to themselves and all of us.

ZION.

Miss EDNA BALLARD.

Miss Julia Strecker spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Dan Johnson of Jasper.

Mrs. Lena Dickerson spent a few days with Glenn Cartwright and wife.

Mrs. J. J. Schooler visited last week with her parents, H. M. Harker and wife of Carthage.

Mrs. Otto Goddard and daughter Roberta spent Tuesday with Cap. Tiller and family.

Miss Nellie Crow had no school at North Star Thursday as the water was so high she could not get to her school.

Miss Geneva Hubbard spent the day Wednesday with Miss Elsie Gresham.

Mrs. C. B. Earl and son and Mrs. F. I. Earl and daughter visited Mrs. H. O. Earl Monday.

J. S. Seela and wife were shopping in Carthage Monday.

Miss Bessie Strecker spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Herschel Radford.

E. R. Fenner is serving on the jury at Carthage this week.

George Earl made a trip to Kansas City last week and returned Friday.

Mrs. Walker Hubbard and children of Jasper spent a few days with B. F. Johnson and family. Walker Hubbard also visited there Sunday and accompanied the former home.

Henry Martin spent a few days at J. P. Curtis's near Centerpoint.

Clarence Keith and wife were guests of A. A. Foster and family Sunday.

Mr. Adams and family from near Carthage moved last Tuesday to the G. M. Jacobs farm recently purchased by M. Bradley. G. M. Jacobs and wife are spending a few weeks at the home of D. Elting.

Ed White and family and Mr. Lewis and family of Liberty neighborhood ate Tuesday dinner with Robert White and family.

Miss Alice Curtis formerly of this neighborhood, but who now lives near Centerpoint, was married Thursday, March 4, at Carthage to Mr. Oscar Currier from near Greenfield. Mrs. Currier is a daughter of J. F. Curtis and is well known in this vicinity, having lived here many years. Mr. Currier and bride are spending a few days with J. F. Curtis and family and will leave for Hickory County in a few days where they will make their future home. The many Zion friends wish them much joy and happiness in their new home.

Mrs. Dan Johnson and daughter Arlene of Jasper spent Wednesday with the former's father, Will Strecker and family.

Will Holdeman carried mail for H. E. Ballard on route 1 Tuesday.

Mrs. Retta Lowenstein of Carthage visited last week with Mrs. C. Pollmer and son Herbert.

Miss Jennie Johnston, who has been visiting for several weeks with her parents, returned to Kansas City Friday.

Carl Ballard took dinner with M. G. Ridgley of Barton County Tuesday.

Mrs. C. B. Earl and son spent a few days with F. I. Earl and family.

Will Strecker and Clyde and Bessie Strecker and Mike Isenman and family were Sunday guests of E. E. Hubbard and family.

Mrs. Wm. Baird and daughter of Jasper spent a few days with Cap. Tiller and family.

John Campbell spent Saturday night with Howard Gresham.

Lester McConnell and Miss Julia Strecker were entertained at Sunday dinner by Ross McConnell and family.

Miss Edna Ballard visited Miss Eloise Martin Tuesday.

Lemuel and Floyd Thomas spent a few days with their sister, Mrs. Lonnie Strecker, while Mr. Strecker was on the jury at Carthage.

G. M. Jacobs visited Bloomingdale school Friday.

Carl Ballard made a business trip to Webb City Monday.

Mrs. E. R. Fenner and children visited John Sheets and family of Barton County Sunday.

James Tunnel and family, who occupy the old Chas. Earle farm, are moving to Jasper this week.

J. J. Schooler ate Sunday dinner at C. V. Ballard's.

DUBLIN.

Mrs. BERTHA WEBBER.

Mrs. Grim attended the Shoopman and Gresham sale last Wednesday. Frank Bluebaugh has been helping his father move from near Carthage to a farm recently purchased in the Esrom neighborhood.

Farmers and Merchants Bank Jasper, Mo.

Mrs. W. S. Taylor from Carl Junction is visiting her sister, Mrs. Grim.

Fred Grider worked at the John Carter home last week.

Sam King and family spent Sunday with Earl Garner and wife.

MALTA.

Miss LILLIAN MAGERS.

Thomas Tenesch from Glasgow, Mont., is visiting John Welsh and family this week.

Miss Ceola Mackey returned to Springfield Tuesday afternoon to attend the the spring term of school.

Charley Marshall, carrier on route 3 from Golden City, was unable to make all the trip Tuesday and Wednesday on account of bad roads.

Mrs. G. M. Magers called on Mrs. John Welch Tuesday morning.

Mrs. and Mr. McConnell spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. Seela and family.

Guy McConnell and family spent Sunday with home folks.

The Pleasant Valley School is progressing nicely with 60 in attendance. Virgil Carter spent Monday evening with Dan and Will Magers.

WHAT'S IN YOUR HAT?

SPRING HATS

IT IS GUARANTEED

by the seller and also by the manufacturer. Now the most important question—

IS IT A WORTH?

If it is we know you have a hat worth what you paid for it. Ladies will buy Easter hats, why not the men?

I have the most beautiful line of New Spring Hats ever unpacked in Jasper. Make me prove it. Come in. My business is gents' furnishings, that's why you get just a little better at the same price.

SPRING TIES

A beautiful new line of Ties now on display. New shapes, colors and combinations.

SPRING SUITS

DON'T FORGET to

order that new suit early. Don't wait until you are invited out or receive a telegram saying, "Come." Buy one now and be prepared for emergencies. Price, fit and workmanship guaranteed. Spring Samples are now ready for your inspection.

DEARDORFF The Jasper Clothier
"The Worth Hat Store"